Theatrical Notes

AT THE KENTUCKY.
Saturday night and Matinee—Fantana.

DePew-Burdette Stock Company.
The DePew-Burdette Stock company opened for a return engagement at The Kentucky theater for four nights last night, with a matinee on Thanksgiving day. They present two new plays, "A Quaker Tragedy," a four-act comedy, and "When the Bell Tolls," a melodrama. "A Homespun Heart" will be the Thanksgiving offering. All the old favorites are in the cast, and in addition new specialties will be introduced by the Wheeler sisters and Al Wade.

There was a big house last night. A turkey will be given at each performance tomorrow.

The bill for tonight at The Kentucky is, "A Quaker Tragedy."

"Fantana" Saturday.
Charles Swichard, as the commode and father of Fantana, has a magnificent baritone voice and is given rare opportunities to display his many talents. William Blaisdell, as the bogus count, is agile and boundingly energetic and is extremely funny in the part. Miss Norma Bell, who portrays the character of a New York society belle, is beautiful and is the possessor of a rich soprano voice. Miss Josephine Newman, Miss Edith French, Mayme Dupont, Eva Grau and Frances Sears are all given ample opportunity to show their theatrical ability. The chorus is composed of seventy-five of the most attractive show girls that have ever appeared in New York. Taking the production as a whole it is, without question, one of the most elaborate, mammoth and beautiful that has ever been produced here. At The Kentucky Saturday matinee and night.

Goodwin Must Testify.
New York, Nov. 28.—District Attorney Jerome today summoned before him the cashier of a large poolroom in the vicinity of Fourteenth street, who paid out $50 a week in the police. Nat C. Goodwin, the actor, who, it is claimed, won a large sum from Theodore Barrett, of Louisville, at faro and cutting the cards in an uptown gambling establishment, also was called before the grand jury. He must tell where the game took place.

Mrs. Mary E. Tyree.
Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Tyree, 61 years old, died at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her home, 612 Husbands streets, of a complication of diseases. The deceased was the wife of H. Tyree, foreman of the Paducah Furniture factory, who survives her. Her children are Robert, Estella, Ellie, Ruby, Ara, Flora and Ira Tyree, and Mrs. Etta Sutherland, all of Paducah; Mrs. Thomas Tyree, Benton, and Mrs. Millie Allen, Mayfield. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the residence. The burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery.
